Old Newspaper clippings in Schenck Bible

"Margaret Schenck Craig was born at Sidney, Ohio, Oct. 13, 1836 and departed this life at the house of her son-in-law, William Brown, in Franklin, Ohio April 27, 1905.

Mrs. Craig resided in Sidney until about 15 years of age, when she removed with her parents to a farm near Franklin. Here she continued to reside until her marriage with Alfred Craig January 1856. After marriage she removed with her husband to Carlisle, where their lives were spent happily together until his death on March 22, 1897. Mrs. Craig was the mother of five children, all of whom are still living; Ellsworth and Samuel of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. Francis Brown of Franklin, Ohio, Mrs. Mary E. Karstendiek of Cincinnati and Louis D. of Tacoma, Washington.

Mrs. Craig united with the Presbyterian Church of Franklin, Ohio about the 16th year of her age under the ministry of Rev. Gilbert M. Hare. Later her membership was transferred to the Presbyterian Church at C Carlisle, where she remained a consistent member until death removed her from the Church Militant to the Church triumphant."

"Eleanor Schenck Maxwell daughter of Mr. and Mrs Daniel D. Schenck was born at Sidney, Ohio, May 21, 1841 and departed this life February 25, 1927.

Mrs. Maxwell resided in Sidney until about 8 years of age when she removed with her parents to a farm near Franklin. Here she continued to reside until her marriage with Robert Rabb Maxwell September 4, 1866.

Most of her life was spent in that vicinity, with the exception of about eighteen months, when she and her husband moved to Iola, Kansas. After their return to Ohio, the death of her husband occurred on June 18, 1883.

Mrs. Maxwell was the mother of five children, four of whom are still living, Craig Maxwell of Philadelphia, Pa., Meigs and Chalmers Maxwell of Dayton, Ohio and Mrs. Chas. J. Waggoner of Lebanon, Ohio. Alfred Maxwell passed away July 1, 1918. There are four grandchildren a number of other relatives and a host of friends who also mourn her passing. Mrs. Maxwell had been a member of the Presbyterian Church for more than seventy years. She was known to her family and friends as a devout Christian always interested in the work of the church."

Old Newspaper clippings in Schenck Bible.

"Catherine Ann Stanton, daughter of James and Ann Jones Stanton, was born in Southampton Co., Va. January 27, 1820.

In the fall of 1825 James Stanton moved with his family to Warren County, Ohio and purchased the farm near Springboro where the deceased with the exception of about fifteen years of her early married life has continuously lived.

On the first day of the second month 1838, she was united in marriage with Joseph Stanton. Together they happily journeyed for fifty-seven years. To them were born twelve children, six sons and six daughters. The father, with three sons and four daughters preceeded her to the Heavenly home, leaving three sons, John F. of Detroit, Mich., Thomas E. of Tuba, Ariz., Walter G. of St. Paul, Minn., and two daughters Lydia B. Moore of Los Angeles, Calif., and Emma S. Chapman together with fourteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren to emulate her example.

She was a birthright member and an acknowledged minister in the Society of Friends to whose faith and principles she was deeply attached and when possible a faithful attendant at meetings for divine worship; many times going on horseback with one child in her arms and another behind her on the same horse. Living at one time quite a distance from public school she taught her own six children beside doing her own sewing and general housework.

She often said during the last few years that she was "Waiting till the Master said 'Come Home'." And to this call she responded Sept. 15th, 1913, at the age of 93 years, 7 months and 21 days, having lived in this immediate neighborhood nearly ninety years, dating from the ox-cart and log cabin to the automobile and stately mansion."

Obituary from "The Franklin Argus" August 7, 1880.

"Again we must record the decease of an old and valued citizen of this vicinity. On August 3rd at his residence on Pennyroyal Hill, died of catarrhal consumption, Mr. Daniel D. Schenck. The death of such a man calls for more than merely a brief announcement.

He was born in Albany, N.Y. July 13, 1807. Hence was somewhat more than seventy-three years of age. The old family Bible that bears this date is curiously of the same age, having been printed in the same year, 1807.

Whilst yet an infant his parents moved to the then wilderness of Ohio and entered the farm on which he has lived to his dying hour excepting a few years after his marriage passed in Shelby County. His union to his departed wife occurred in 1830; and together they journeyed forty-eight years before she preceeded him to a better home.

To them were born ten children, three of whom are now with them in the spirit land. Since the demise of his wife, two and a half years ago it has been plain to all that Mr. Schenck could not long survive her; but only after prolonged and dreary suffering has at last come a welcome release."
